

research in practice

Family justice and court craft

Legal literacy is the ability to connect relevant legal rules with professional priorities and objectives of ethical practice. This selection of learning resources about court craft and legal literacy can be used to support evidence-informed practice with children, young people and families.

Read

Longer read: Defensible decision-making in children's social care - resource pack for practice supervisors: Frontline Briefing \(2022\)

Longer read: Ensuring equality, diversity and inclusion in the Family Court: Frontline Briefing \(2022\)

Longer read: Care planning for children in proceedings: Frontline Briefing \(2022\)

Practice Tools

Social work practice in the family court: Practice Tool \(2017\)

Completing social work chronologies: Practice Tool \(2022\)

Using genograms in practice: Practice Tool \(2021\)

Listen

1 hour: Learning from and supporting the voice of families in court \(2022\)

20 minutes: The role of an intermediary in family and criminal proceedings \(2021\)

45 minutes: Using case law in social care practice \(2023\)

Reflect

Reflect on and record your CPD using the button on each resource page. You can also bookmark and share resources with colleagues. Log and review your reflections in 'Your CPD.'

For more resources, explore the open-access pre-proceedings and family justice hub or the family justice page.

Research in Practice also publishes regular case law and legal summaries of important legal judgments and their impact on social work practice.